against her arise out of allegations that she conspired with two co-defendants, to distribute less than fifty kilograms of a mixture and substance containing marijuana and 50 grams or more of pure methamphetamine.

- (2) Defendant is not employed. She reports heavy alcohol use and other drug use. She is interested in pursuing treatment for methamphetamine addiction.
- (3) The defendant is associated with two alias names, one of which she reports is her married name.
- (4) Pretrial Services has investigated a placement at Pioneer Center North, a secure, inpatient treatment facility. Treatment staff recommend the defendant detox in custody for thirty days and then be released for inpatient treatment. The defendant agrees.
- (5) The defendant poses a risk of nonappearance based on alcohol and drug use. She poses a risk of danger based on the nature of the offense, her criminal history and use of drugs and alcohol.
